President's Message

Melissa C. Molina
University of the Incarnate Word
2026/2027
Chapter President
EWI of San Antonio®

Dear fellow EWI Sisters,

The last month has been a whirlwind! Traveling to Mobile, Alabama for LCAM, the installation at the Roosevelt Library, and our Board of Directors retreat immediately following. The Board was eager to share their feedback, insights, and overall collaboration to making our chapter successful.

As we begin a new EWI year, I am reminded of the incredible strength that comes from working together. EWI is more than an organization—it is a community of professional women who encourage one another, share their talents, build meaningful relationships, and make a difference in the lives of others.

Our theme this year, "There is no "I" in Team, but there is a "WE" in EWI," is a reminder that everything we accomplish is stronger when we accomplish it together. Each member brings unique gifts, experiences, ideas, and connections to our chapter. When we combine those strengths, there is no limit to what our "WE" can achieve.

As your Chapter President, my goal is to help create an environment where every member feels valued, heard, connected, and inspired to contribute. An environment where everyone understands that they belong and that their participation matters. Because EWI is strongest when everyone has a seat at the table and a voice in the conversation.

As we move through this year, I encourage each of us to think about what "WE" means personally.

How can WE engage more?

How can WE support one another more intentionally?

How can WE create an even stronger chapter together?

Thank you for the trust you have placed in me to serve as your Chapter President. I am excited about the year ahead and, most importantly, excited about what WE will accomplish together.

See you at Committee Night,

Melissa C. Molina

September 2026

This month is especially meaningful as we welcome a new Board. New leadership brings fresh perspectives, new ideas, and opportunities to challenge our thinking in positive ways.

We set the example for collaboration, trust, accountability, and service. The strength of our team will not be measured solely by what we accomplish individually, but by how effectively we support one another, foster connections, and empower those around us to succeed.

Heavenly Father, thank You for bringing us together as a team and for the opportunity to serve, lead, and make a difference. As we begin this new year, grant us wisdom to make sound decisions, humility to learn from one another, courage to face challenges, and compassion to support those we lead. Strengthen our partnerships, guide our conversations, and help us use our talents to always create a positive impact. May we lead with integrity, build trust through our actions, and be a source of encouragement to those around us. Bless our efforts and help us work together toward a successful and meaningful year ahead. Amen.

Vicki L. Chapman

October 2026

My Chapter sisters:

As I reflect on the past year serving as EWI Corporate President, my heart is filled with gratitude for each of you. Having you by my side meant more than you know and made this experience truly meaningful.

Throughout the year, you celebrated the successes, lifted me through the challenges, and continually reminded me that I was never carrying this responsibility alone. Thank you for the countless messages, kind words, gifts, prayers, and encouragement.

Serving as Corporate President has been one of the greatest privileges of my EWI journey and my career. It was an honor to represent not only our organization, but also the incredible women of our phenomenal Chapter. The bond we share is truly unbreakable. I am so proud of us!

From the bottom of my heart, thank you for standing beside me every step of the way. I am blessed to call you my family, and I will be forever grateful for each of you.

Love,

Vicki

Where are we now?

EWI San Antonio is Stronger Together through the power of partnerships and connections. Any great book will convince you that an organization is successful because of the connections and partnerships. As we focus on building authentic, long-term relationships, strong partnerships are formed - these lead to opportunities, innovation and career growth. EWI San Antonio is about relationships, generosity, collaboration and helping others first rather than transactions networking. Our members build relationships, and relationships are the currency of success.

We all know success is rarely achieved alone. Success comes from developing strong character and aligning actions with fundamental principles such as integrity, responsibility, fairness, and mutual benefit. Success also depends a lot on how well you understand and work with people also how you encourage a genuine interest in others, through empathy, appreciation, and respectful communication.

Several practical strategies (and great rules to live by) for expanding and maintaining a valuable network include:

- Don't criticize or complain
- Provide honest and sincere appreciation
- Be genuinely interested in other people
- Remember people's names
- Listen more than you talk. Listening is often more valuable than talking.
- Let others save face. Show loyalty.
- Appeal to other's interests and motivations

The strongest opportunities come from the people you know, the relationships you nurture, and the value you create together. People want to feel respected, appreciated and understood. Strong relationships remain a major driver of career advancement, successful partnerships, and organizational success.

Trust + Understanding + Collaboration = Sustainable Success for building connections

People trust those who make them feel respected and understood. When people feel trusted, they are more likely to act responsibly and engage fully. The best partnerships are built on trust and mutual value.

There are those who give by helping others without immediately expecting something in return, then there are takers who seek to maximize their own gains. Most times, people who consistently help others, when done wisely, often achieve the greatest long-term success. Better said - The most successful people are often those who help others succeed.

In conclusion: Success is relational, not individual. Generosity creates opportunity. Strong networks are built through genuine service to others. Helping people and achieving personal success are not mutually exclusive. Go on and achieve great things through EWI!

Member Spotlight
Marsha Garza
USAA

Wood Middle School - North East ISD
October 5 at 1:09 PM ·

Check out this Alumni Spotlight that our District published featuring one of our very own former students!

Once upon a time, Marsha Garza was a student at Wood Middle School.

It was a chapter in her story, and one of her favorite chapters.

Recently, she returned to help write a new chapter at Wood.

The San Antonio Chapter of Executive Women International (EWI) recently donated new furniture and supplies to give the library at Wood a bit of a makeover, creating a refreshed space for students to read and connect.

Garza serves on the EWI board and jumped at the opportunity to return to her former school and read to current students during the big library reveal.

"I went here, so being back today, giving back to students and reading with them, was truly a full-circle moment," she said. "I love being back."

When Garza isn't making dreams come true for students, she's an executive assistant at USAA. She credits the skills she developed during her time at Wood and Roosevelt High School for helping her get where she is today.

"I learned leadership skills here," she said. "I was always involved in extracurriculars and the skills that you learn to collaborate and lead, you take those into your college and career."

Giving back to the school that gave so much to you – that's community support coming full circle.

That's #theNEISDway.
